

Winter Animal Tracking and Guided Snowshoe Hike

Date: Sunday, February 5, 2017

Time: 12:00 noon to 2:00 PM

Place: Lake Laurentian Conservation Area – Nature Chalet (2309 South Bay Rd.)

Snowshoes are provided for free!

Winter is the perfect season to look for signs of animal life in the woods. Take a guided snowshoe tour with a nature interpreter and discover a winter forest full of life!

The Nature Chalet will be open to warm up and to enjoy complimentary hot beverages.

All ages welcome!

The number of participants is limited and reservations are highly recommended. For more information or to reserve a spot please call 705-674-8904 or email lakelaurentian@gmail.com

Working on your 50 things list? Here's a chance to check off some activities!

50 things
to do before you're 12

Brought to you by:

